

56

IMMERSE YOURSELF
IN WV'S NATURAL RESOURCES, DEVELOP LIFELONG FRIENDSHIPS, AND HAVE THE ADVENTURE OF YOUR SUMMER!

ONLINE INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION WVCONSERVATIONCAMP.COM

CONTACT:

Ben Spong, Camp Chairman
West Virginia University Extension
P.O. Box 6125
Morgantown, WV 26506
304- 293-9425
ben.spong@mail.wvu.edu

Programs and activities offered by the WV State Conservation Camp are available to all persons without regard to race, color, sex, disability, religion, age, veteran status, political beliefs, sexual orientation, national origin, and marital or family status.

OPPORTUNITIES TO EXPLORE

 trails and hiking

 campfire

 archery

 softball/volleyball

 rappelling

 wildlife viewing

 boating

 swimming

 fishing

 outdoor cooking

 shooting sports

 recycling

 soils

 maybe a bear?

JOIN OUR CAMPER ALUMNI
+16,000 SINCE
1941

DAILY HANDS-ON CLASSES WITH EXPERTS

FORESTRY

WILDLIFE AND FISHERIES

WATER AND SOILS

RECREATION AND NATURE

Each morning, work with natural resource professionals that manage forests, water, wildlife, and recreation sites around the state. Build your knowledge about the outdoors and apply new skills with hands-on activities that are sure to keep you interested.

Start to develop professional contacts and explore educational and career opportunities in natural resources management.

DETAILS

Who: Students Ages 14 to not yet 18

Where: Camp Caesar

Webster County, Rt. 20 between Cowen and Webster Springs

When: Early June-week before Father's Day

Cost: Camp fees are $200.

Many camp scholarships are available, supported by local organizations that value natural resource education.

Learn more at our website:

WVCONSERVATIONCAMP.COM

YOUR OUTDOOR OPEN DOOR